

Suspension Of Driving License

- Where, in relation to a person who had been previously convicted of an offence punishable under section 184, a case is registered by a police officer on the allegation that such person has, by such dangerous driving as is referred to in the said section 184, of any class or description of motor vehicle caused the death of, or grievous hurt to, one or more persons, the driving license held by such person shall in relation to such class or description of motor vehicle become suspended – for a period of six months from the date on which the case is registered, or if such person is discharged or acquitted before the expiry of the period aforesaid, until such discharge or acquittal, as the case may be.
- Where by virtue of the provisions of sub-section (1), the driving license held by a person becomes suspended, the police officer, by whom the case referred to in sub-section (1) is registered, shall bring such suspension to the notice of the Court competent to take cognizance of such offence, and thereupon, such Court shall take possession of the driving license, endorse the suspension thereon and intimate the fact of such endorsement to the licensing authority by which the license was granted or last renewed.
